

Tasks for Tomorrow

John P. Sestito, J.D., M.S.

National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Best Practices in Workplace Surveillance Workshop

November 7, 2001

Administrivia 2

- Assigned Breakout Sessions
- Notebook – Abstracts
- Consider talks by Mundt & Ruser
- Questions for Tomorrow

Thursday Concurrent Sessions

Academia

Federal and State authorities

Labor

Management

Public Health

Risk managers

Safety and Health Professional groups

Questions for Tomorrow

- Describe what works, why, & how
  - ◆ Describe surveillance practices in industry and among working populations
  - ◆ Identify 'common denominators' to successful programs

Questions for Tomorrow

- Other contributors and possible contributions
- Information dissemination priorities

Partnership Opportunities

- Technical assistance
- Surveillance research
- Capacity building

Challenges in Partnership Development

- Speaking the same language
- Identifying mutually beneficial opportunities
- Developing surveillance capacity
  - ◆ Management and labor support
  - ◆ Information systems
  - ◆ Capacity to intervene

Workplace Surveillance and Prevention Programs

Vision:

Effective workplace surveillance, with data driving prevention practices

“No one is as smart as all of us.”

Japanese proverb

SAFER • HEALTHIER • PEOPLE™

Appreciation and Thanks

SAFER • HEALTHIER • PEOPLE™

Thank You!

SAFER • HEALTHIER • PEOPLE™